

The Heliconian Literary Lecture Series

For busy people who like to read

SERIES 2

The Heliconian Literary Lecture Series will run from September 2008 until May 2009.

This popular series has been described as a cross between a traditional book club and a university course without exams. This year it will consist of two separate series consisting of nine two-hour sessions, each including a lecture, question period and refreshments. The doors will open at 7:00 p.m. with lecture beginning at 7:30. Subscription cost for non-members of the Heliconian Club is $140, (members of the Heliconian Club $110). You will be sent tickets for each evening of the series you select, and all tickets will be mailed in August.
